INSTITUTIONAL SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Reference No. – NAAC 3.4.4

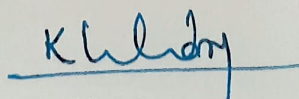

Spoorthi Ayurvedic Medical College & Dr. S.V. Savadi Ayurvedic Hospital undertakes social responsibility initiatives through outreach activities and the adoption of Kalgudi village. These initiatives aim to strengthen the institution's engagement with the local community and contribute to community well-being through awareness, education, and health-related outreach, in accordance with the programmes conducted by the institution.

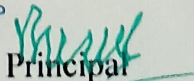

The adoption of Kalgudi village provides a focused framework for sustained community interaction, understanding local needs, and planning relevant outreach initiatives. Through these efforts, the institution seeks to promote health awareness, preventive healthcare, community participation, and local development, while fostering empathy and social responsibility among students and staff.

The institution's outreach activities and village-adoption initiative reflect its commitment to community engagement and socially responsive healthcare education. Details of specific programmes, dates, beneficiaries, and outcomes are maintained with supporting evidence for NAAC reporting.
